

ACTIVITIES

(SMEs) is the research institution specialized in the field of pulp and paper applied and technological research that offers specialized services to the economical agents from pulp and paper area as well as to the other activity areas.

CEPROHART is producer of intelligent papers for value documents and packaging with high security level that assure the guarantee of the authenticity and help to increase the efficiency in the fight against counterfeiting and forgery; these papers are obtained by embedding into cellulose matrix of the micro and nano elements with magnetic, optical and chemical properties that allow their identification with portable devices or specific laboratory methods.

ACTINPAK FOCUS

Focuses towards on research of securing and functionalizing elements for paper applications; producing of active and intelligent papers and their market uptake.