

ACTIVITIES

CSI is a multipurpose Certification and Behavioral Analysis Center, with a wide offer diversified in terms of technology and sectors that range from the automotive industry, civil, railway and naval construction, to food industry (including Food Packaging Materials Division - FPM); analyzing and verifying the behavioral aspects related to safety, even in the most critical use conditions, and identifying the best solutions.

Alongside the laboratory activities, it is very significant the commitment to certification of business management systems, mandatory product certification (CE) and voluntary certification of chemical and hygienic risk of food (BRC) and packaging (BRC-IOP) as well as the traceability of the food chain.

ACTINPAK FOCUS

CSI - FPM sector focuses on companies testing services, applied research, validation, studies of conformity and food contact product certifications according to international technical standards and regulations.