

SAVE THE DATE ON NOVEMBER 21ST

THE ACTINPAK CONFERENCE AND FAIR WILL TAKE PLACE IN VIENNA, AUSTRIA

The conference and fair program will soon be published on the ActInPak website where you can also read more about ActInPak.

as well-known scientific and industry members of the European COST Action FP1405 ActInPak will share interactive presentations and physical demonstrations of active and intelligent packaging.

Here, you will find the latest on novel innovations and market implementation of packaging that interacts with its contents (active) or communicates with its consumers (intelligent).

Results of the 4-year COST Action, which involves partners from 43 countries representing 209 academic institutions 83 industries and 35 technical centres, will be presented.
